

2009-2010 Women's Bible Study at First Presbyterian Church

TUESDAY MORNING:

"Women at the Well" Intergenerational Bible study from September through May. Meets in the Celebration Center from 9:00 – 11:15 a.m.

 The final meeting day will include extended time until 12:30 p.m. for lunch, fellowship, discussion and prayer. Childcare is provided.

September 15 - November 17:

"Esther: It's Tough Being a Woman" by Beth Moore. Join us in an in-depth and very personal examination of this great story of threat and deliverance. If you've ever felt inadequate, threatened, or pushed into situations that seemed overpowering, this is the study for you.

December 1 - February 2: (with two week Christmas break)

"Devotional Classics" edited by Richard J. Foster and James Bryan Smith. Selected readings on Preparing for the Spiritual Life, featuring essays by C.S. Lewis, Jonathan Edwards, St. Augustine, Dallas Willard, Francis de Sales, John of the Cross, Francois Fenelon, and Bernard of Clairvaux.

February 9 - March 23:

"Stepping Up: A Journey Through the Psalms of Ascent" by Beth Moore. This delightful study is a closer look at Psalms 120-134. Traveling pilgrims sang these psalms both on the way to the great festivals of the Jews and as key elements of the worship at those festivals. Interact with the Scriptures in new ways through this fascinating study.

March 30 - May 18:

"Book of Colossians" Join us in a deeper look at this rich epistle that Paul composed from prison. Colossians is a serious exploration of our connections--to Christ and one another, where genuine influence is a watershed effect of our lives. We will use the Life Application Bible Commentary with discussion questions and spiritual exercises written by our Bible study team. Learn how to use various Biblical resources to your advantage in undertaking the study of God's word.
